God Made the Whole World

To the tune of He's Got the Whole World in His Hands

Chorus:

(Picture of the world)

God made the whole world, yes He did,
God made the whole world, yes He did,
God made the whole world, yes He did,
He made the whole world, yes He did.

Verse One:

(Circle: White on one side. Black on the other.)

God made the day and the night, yes He did,
God made the day and the night, yes He did,
God made the day and the night, yes He did,
He made the whole world, yes He did.

Verse Two:

(Point to the ground and to the sky.)

God made the land and the sky, yes He did,
God made the land and the sky, yes He did,
God made the land and the sky, yes He did,
He made the whole world, yes He did.

Verse Three:

(Branch with leaves)

God made the plants and the trees, yes He did,
God made the plants and the trees, yes He did
God made the plants and the trees, yes He did
He made the whole world, yes He did.

Verse Four:

(Circle: Yellow on one side. White on the other.)

God made the sun and the moon, yes He did,
God made the sun and the moon, yes He did,
God made the sun and the moon, yes He did,
He made the whole world, yes He did.

Verse Five

(Flap arms like bird wings and then with palms together, move hands like a fish.)

God made the birds and the fish, yes He did,
God made the birds and the fish, yes He did,
God made the birds and the fish, yes He did,
He made the whole world, yes He did.

Verse Six

(Point to others, then to self.)

God made you and me, yes He did,
God made you and me, yes He did,,
God made you and me, yes He did,
He made the whole world, yes He did.
